The Miracle of Life Sponsorship Program

Making your contributions to MLF not only is a charity that's right but also it is a tax benefit for you too.

MLF charities are registered with the IRS as 501(c)(3) organizations and have been given tax-exempt status.

What does it mean to be a 501(c)(3) organization? For charities, this means that they can accept contributions and offer donors a tax deduction for their gifts. For donors like you, this means your contributions are fully tax-deductible to the amount allowed by law.

The email receipt you receive from MLF does indeed meet all the IRS requirements as a record of donation.

Do I need a receipt for donations I make? The IRS does not require receipts for cash donations under $250, but you should keep donation information on file. Cash contributions of $250 and over require an acknowledgement that must be sent to the IRS with your tax returns. Every time you make a donation through MLF, that donation is recorded in your Giving History by the year, a feature that makes itemizing your taxes simple and convenient.

MLF will continually add to and update its tax information to address even the most specific and complicated questions. While we are in the process of bringing you this information, if you have specific questions, please contact your tax advisor or the IRS publications on charitable giving.
